ROUND 3:

PERSONAL INTERVIEW:

Results for the JAM will be given in 1 hour. Deloitte mainly look for communicational skills, Basic knowledge on technical stuff is a good go. Be confident and don't bluff if you don't know the answer.

It started with Self Introduction and asked me to explain deeply about the projects that I have done. They will check your presentation skills here. Few questions on DBMS was asked, like what is ACID property, how to avoid data redundancy. Few questions was asked on MYSQL like what is primary key, candidate key, inner join, left join, outer join. Later on DATA STRUCTURES like what is a linked list? Explain it with a real life example. What is a tree? Explain it with a real life example. How many searches are needed in a tree to find the element in the 3rd level etc. Few questions were asked on the Internship that I had done. Later a general questions like "what is the one thing that you wanted to change in yourself", "where do you see yourself in next 5 years".

Deloitte wants its employees to have knowledge on the company, projects etc. so try to have idea about the company, projects and latest news.
